1

Tour begins; leave Atrium and turn left onto Forth Street. Point out H Block as you walk past, and G Block as you continue around the corner.

2

Use crossing outside Robertson Library - our shared library with the University of Otago. Students can also use it for group study rooms or learn about citing and referencing.

3

Travel along Forth St, crossing the Leith and walking towards DSA along Reigo St. Enter P Block and walk through their main atrium, pointing out exhibition spaces and classrooms. Exit end of building.

4

Continue into O Block, pointing out the architecture of the space and classrooms. The space is also used for our annual Student Showcase event.

5

Exiting end of O Block, point out N Block to your right. This is the home of Vet Nursing, and includes the Wildlife Hospital.

6

Continue to corner and point out L Block across the road - home of Natural Resources, Carpentry and Construction. This is where you can find our annual Charity House build.

7

Heading along Anzac Avenue, point out the Stadium on the right, as well as Unipol. All students have free memberships to the gym. The Stadium is where O-Week events take place.

8

Pointing up Logan Park Drive to Sargood Centre, encourage people who are interested in Sport to attend their tours. Highlight proximity to stadium, cricket ground and Caledonian Athletics grounds.

9

Heading towards Te Pā Taurira, encourage people to attend their tours to experience our very own 231-bed hall of residence.

10

Mural on the wall from student Eva Meuws, and compost hub. Fence work done by a design student. Sustainability goals of the campus.

11

Manaaki, Ako and Te Pā Taurira Dining Hall. Department home of Culinary Arts and Food Design.

12

Make your way over the crossing, looking at the Hub from the other side. Point out new sculpture in the centre. Walk past D Block - location for school of Business and IT.

13

New Trades building on your left, aiming to be finished for 2024.

14

Continue walking to the corner. Point out Sargood on the right across the field, and edible garden under the Gown Room on the left. Continue around the corner to A Block.

15

Walk through A Block back to the Hub Atrium to finish the tour. Point out Polykids, English Language Centre, kite sculpture and flags out front.
