

KO WAI AU?

"Accepting the name Pakeha implied having a position of responsibility to tangata whenua and to the land. In turn those who have accepted being Pakeha receive a sense of belonging to Aotearoa and a place to stand in justice alongside Maori and other people who are culturally different from them." Black, 2010.

AGENDA

- Teaching Tertiary
- Keys to Teaching Excellence
- Observations of Excellence
- · Co-Teaching te Tiriti
- Pākehā and Kaupapa Māori styles
- Aiming for Excellence

TERTIARY TEACHING

My journey includes:

- Teaching English in Japan
- Teaching Primary
- Youth Work
- Social Work
- Family Support
- School Focused Youth Services
- Coordination and Management roles

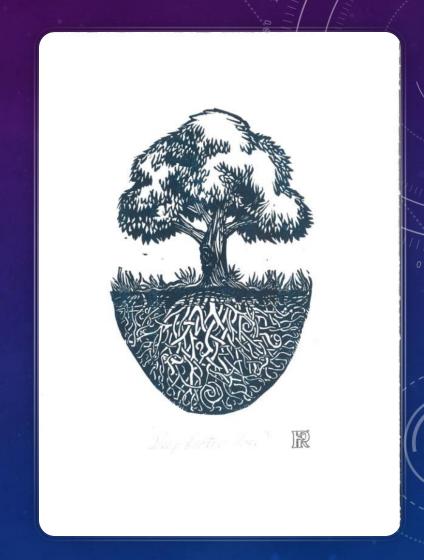

Figure 7 – The Keys to Teaching Excellence

OBSERVATIONS OF EXCELLENCE

ALL ABOUT RACH....

711111111111 052 025 042

TEACHING TE TIRITI

TOGETHER, UNPACKING THE LIGHT AND THE DARK

KAUPAPA MĀORI AND PĀKEHĀ STYLES IN THE AKO SPACE

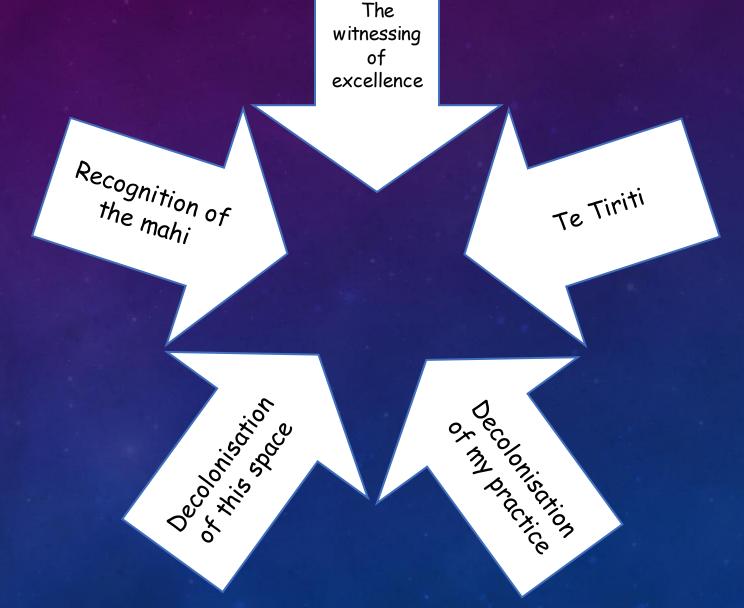

Kaupapa Māori teaching in the room

Pākehā in the room

Co-facilitating;

the thinking, the creating, the doing, the reflections...

AIMING FOR EXCELLENCE
- THE PRAXIS

Kā nui te mihi ki a Rachel! And to those listening - Subversive pedagogues all