Delivered online through eCampus NZ

Do you want a greater level of confidence working in the digital tools and technologies space?
Or perhaps you want to pursue new career opportunities in this area?

Understanding, getting to grips with and using digital tools and technology is essential in today's business world and this Certificate will give you the confidence and skill to move forward.

On completion of this programme, you will have intermediate level computing user skills and be ready for an entry level role in a wide range of organisations.

Please note: Learners under the age of 18 cannot apply for this programme.

Want to study face-to-face?

No problem. We also offer this programme at our Dunedin Campus.

What will I learn?

Master the spreadsheet.

Knowing how to develop and complete a spreadsheet and database efficiently is a core skill in a corporate environment.

Learn the rules.

There is an online etiquette and you ignore it at your peril. The digital world has opened up so many opportunities and it's a fast changing world but it's not a world without barriers or ethics and if you want to be part of it you need to get to grips with the unwritten rules. Learn how these apply to you during this programme.

Best practice learnings.

Learn the fundamentals and best practice techniques of web development. How do you use colour, imagery and icons? How do you select fonts and ensure effective architecture? If these questions are keeping you awake at night then this programme might just give you peace of mind.

Entry requirements

- > Open entry.
- > If English is not your first language, you must provide:
 - > New Zealand University Entrance OR
 - > Overall Academic IELTS 5.0 with no individual band score lower than 5.0 (achieved in one test completed in the last two years), OR
