Course summary

This course is not designed to teach you to speak Te Reo Māori.

Our aim is to get you to become more comfortable and confident using words and phrases that you may have heard or already know. We want you to gain a better understanding of these words and phrases by placing these within your industry context or specific workplace.

We also want you to choose words that are relevant and applicable to your context as well as those that we all use in everyday conversation in New Zealand.

What you'll learn

Accurately pronounce Te Reo Māori, using vocabulary that is relevant and applicable to your workplace setting that fits with local language covenants.

Time commitment

2 x 2 hour tutorials, plus an assessment.

Online resources are provided.
