

Introduction to TIG welding

Domestic and international fee:
$602 (including GST).

Please note: This course is not eligible for Fees Free or StudyLink funding.

*Fees are approximate, subject to change and exchange rates

Location    Dunedin
Duration    Five weeks (Monday and Wednesday evenings, 6.00pm-8.00pm)
Delivery    On campus

Start        1 August 2022
Apply       Anytime

Learn how to work safely, understand the principles of a TIG welder and how to weld different positions. You will also discover how to weld different materials.

About TIG WELDING

- > Highly-skilled welding process
- > Can weld stainless steel, aluminium, mild steel to high standards
- > Best suited to fine work (e.g. hand rails where precision and attention to detail are important)
- > Highly paid job if you become competent.

Please note: Due to health and safety requirements in this course, students must have a reasonable level of English language skills. This course is run subject to sufficient numbers.

Directions

Classes are held in A block, Forth Street. Click here for a map.

Materials

All materials for the course are provided. All you need to bring is overalls, safety glasses and steel cap boots.

For more information

Please email EngTrades@op.ac.nz or phone 0800 762 786 for more information.

Disclaimer

While every effort is made to ensure that this sheet is accurate, Otago Polytechnic reserves the right to amend, alter or withdraw any of the contained information. The fees shown in this document are indicative ONLY. Both domestic and international fees are subject to change and are dependent on the development and implementation of Government policies. Please note that additional fees may from time to time be required for external examination, NZQA fees and/or additional material fees.