Arai Te Uru Kokiri Centre and Otago Polytechnic have developed this programme to train whānau and support workers to understand how to support each other and to uplift, listen to and help each other be successful.

This programme is for those who wish to work with Māori and whānau in the development of a whānau-centred approach that supports whānau wellbeing.

Graduates of this qualification will be able to work under supervision to apply knowledge of Māori philosophies and theories of Māori wellbeing. This qualification will prepare you for entry level work caring for or supporting people, from youth to adulthood.
